Boer Goats & Market Goats (con't):

General Rules of the Shows:

1. All Extravaganza event programs are open to youth and adults, except the Jackpot shows, which are youth events.
2. Only does and wethers are eligible to be shown in the Showmanship and Jackpot Shows.
3. It is strongly recommended that all Jackpot Market goats be dehorned.
4. Animals are not required to be clipped. Clipping is allowed in designated areas only.
5. Water must be available to goats in their pens at all times.
6. Meshed or plastic muzzles may be used so long as they allow the animal to open their mouth and drink water.
7. For security purposes, buildings will be locked ½ hour after shows finish on Saturday night. They will be open the following morning at 6:30 a.m.
8. Weld County Goat Extravaganza is not responsible for any losses or accidents.
9. Registration deadline is April 18, 2025. Late entries will be accepted with a late fee only.
10. Stalling – 6' x 6' pens are available to stall your animals. Initial bedding is not provided. Shaving concessions are provided.
11. No reserving pens in the livestock barn, all pens are first come-first serve!
12. No alcohol in the livestock barn at any time.

Health Requirements of the show:

- No animals will be allowed on the fairgrounds exhibiting symptoms of infectious, contagious, or communicable diseases such as but not limited to: external abscesses, ringworm, pink-eye, and sore mouth. Market goats must be castrated or banded by the time of the show. It is recommended that goats be de-loused two weeks prior to the Weld County Goat Extravaganza.
- Health requirements for out-of-state exhibitors: Colorado law requires all out of state goats be accompanied by a valid health certificate. Health certificates will be examined at time of check in. Must be issued by your veterinarian within 30 days of the WCGE show.
- SCRAPIE: The USDA's Scrapie Eradication Program will be enforced at the WCGE. All breeding goats; wethers 18 months & over; and all does shown as market goats must have scrapie ear tags. Exception: registered goats may use tattoos or microchips with breed registration numbers in place of scrapie ear tags. Registration papers must be provided for verification in the barn.
- WCGE Committee members reserve the right to request any animal to leave the premises of the WCGE if they feel an animal is unhealthy and does not meet the standards of the show as mentioned above. If that happens, no refunds will be given.

Boer Goat & Market Goat Event Information:

• Jackpot Showmanship Contests—

Youth exhibitors can test their skills in Jackpot Showmanship. The contests for market divisions are: Pre-Junior (8-9 years old); Junior (10-11); Intermediate (12-14); and Senior (15-18), age as of Dec. 31. Entry is $5/member. You can pre-enter on the registration form, or you can register at show time. Cash premiums will be awarded. All cash prizes must be picked up at the announcers table before the end of the show. Champion showmen in Pre-Junior, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior will receive a buckle.

- Pee Wee & Novice showmanship classes are also offered. There are no entry fees for these classes. They are intended to give young and first year members an opportunity to gain experience in the show ring. Ownership of the animal is not required for showmanship. If this is your first year in showmanship you can show in the novice class and your age group too.

• Jackpot Prospect Market Goat Show -

- This is a prospect show. Animals must have milk teeth intact.

- Goats will be weighed Sunday prior to the show and be divided into weight classes. Weigh-in is 7:00-8:00 am only, no exceptions.
- Maximum weight is 70 lbs. Overweight animals can be shown but will not be considered for Division Champion or Grand Champion.
- When posing the animal, all four feet must remain on the ground.
- Premium payout is based on the jackpot system using $5/entry and the following percentages: 1st - 35%, 2nd - 25%, 3rd - 20%, 4th - 12%, 5th - 8%. All cash prizes must be picked up at the announcers table before the end of the show.
- Overall Grand Champion receives a buckle, rosette and $150. Overall Reserve Grand Champion receives rosette and $100.

Goat Shows—

The Boer shows are sanctioned by ABGA, and their rules shall govern. Commercial (non-registered) classes are offered in the meat goat show. The High Point champion in the ABGA & JABGA shows must be entered in all three shows (#1, #2, & #3) to qualify for the ABGA & JABGA Premier Exhibitor buckles. (If you are entered in only one show you will not qualify).

Event Information:

Educational Seminars –

Our educational seminars will be given on Saturday, upstairs in the 4-H Building where the vendors are located.

Seminar #1 –

ADGA National Show 101: Whether you have never attended a National Show before or are a seasoned pro, this workshop will cover what to expect at the 2025 ADGA National Show in Grand Island, NE. We will cover all aspects of the show, from how to enter, travel tips and schedule to vet check, rules and youth & social events. 11:30am, 4H Rm. 4. (upstairs).

Seminar #2 –

Goat Show 101: Designed for the novice showman, this workshop will make sure you feel confident for your first year of showing and beyond. Covering topics from entering the show, packing and preparations for you and your goat to how goat shows run, this is a must attend for 4-H members, new dairy goat owners, hobby farmers and anyone interested in showing. 12:30 pm, 4H Rm #4.(upstairs)

(Both workshops are presented by Melanie Bohren, President of Colorado Dairy Goat Association)

Vendors–

Individuals and businesses will be exhibiting goat-related items, services, and products during the Extravaganza. Plan to spend time visiting the vendor area in the 4-H Building.

Anyone interested in having a vendor space should contact Larry Hooker, 970-400-2093. Vendor space is limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. The cost for a single vendor space in 4-H building (approx. 10'x10') is $85. See the Vendor form on the Website.

Goat Directory–

Here's a great opportunity to promote your business. Rates for ads are: $20 business card; $45 ½ page; and $75 full page. The Goat Directory Advertisement form is available on the Website. Business card or ad must be included with the Goat Directory Advertisement form, in digital form. Payment should be included with your WCGE Advertisement form on the website. All advertisement forms must be turned in by April 11, 2025 in order to get into the directory.

Award Sponsorship–

For $35 you can sponsor one of the Champion awards being given at the WCGE. Sponsorships are on a first-come basis. Email Aaron Helus at ahelus13@yahoo.com for information on sponsorships. Payment should be included with your Extravaganza Entry form and entered on the spot provided.

Bedding–

Wood shaving may be used as bedding. The WCGE will have shavings for sale on site.

WCGE Scholarship–

If you or someone you know would like to apply for this WCGE scholarship, please go to our website for more information. Applications will open approximately on 12/18/2025 and close on 3/1/2026.

Dinner Social–

Tickets for the dinner/social will be $5.00 per person. This event will be on Saturday, April 26th from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. Come enjoy the food and camaraderie with other goat enthusiasts!

COVID-19–

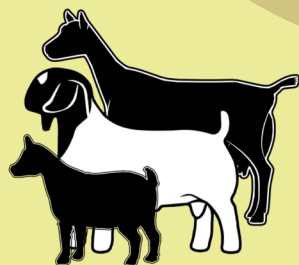

We currently do not have any COVID-19 restrictions at this time.
